

Craft Workshops
Jackman Room
 11:00 a.m.-1:30 p.m.
Tickets sales near door;
 $1 per ticket
 Most crafts cost 1 to 3 tickets.

Guild Hall
 Noon-1:30 p.m.
Tickets sales near crafts
 $1 per ticket
 Each craft costs 1 ticket.

Plus: Cocoa Tubes, Marshmallow Snowmen and Treasures from the Past.

The Boards of Community Life and Spiritual Formation oversee Christmas Festival and are responsible for making it happen—as are many members of the congregation.

Thank you all!

Thank you to the many cookie-baking, craft-creating, hospitality-making elves, who make Christmas Festival and all its joy possible.

Music in Jones Commons, Guild Hall and Lenmark played by members of the Plymouth Keyboard Music Club

Lunch Buffets in Guild Hall and Lenmark

11:45-1:30, no charge (the same food at both locations)

Sandwiches (turkey, ham, cheese); Mini-Cubans; Meatballs;

Egg Rolls (chicken, pork, vegetable);

Meatless Pasta Salad; Vegetable Trays

Kids Zone:

Mini Grilled Cheese Sammies; Mini Corn Dogs; Vegetable Trays; Clementines

Sweets and Beverages—in Guild Hall, Lenmark and Jones Commons

Home-baked Christmas cookies;

Coffee, hot apple cider, cocoa, milk, water

Where there is food, there is music!

Pianists play Christmas tunes in Guild Hall, Jones Commons and Lenmark.

Worship and Luncheon and Crafts . . . Oh My!

Christmas Festival fits our two-service schedule like a bow on a present. All activities are accessible to worshippers after each service. Church School and Sundays @ 10 activities and classes happen as usual. Christmas Festival wraps around it all!

If you go to First Service or Sundays @ 10, head to these afterwards:

• At 10, Jones Commons for fellowship and holiday beverages and cookies.

• At 10, Jones Commons for the youth wreath sale until 1 p.m.

• At 11, Jackman for the craft workshop. Crafts continue until supplies run out or 1:30 p.m., whichever comes first.

After Second Service, head to these Christmas Festival activities:

• At 11:45, Guild Hall or Lenmark for lunch. The same foods are in both. Dine at tables in Jones Commons, Guild Hall or Lenmark.

• At 12:30 p.m., Chapel for carol singing with Phillip Brunelle. Ends at 1 p.m., leaving time for a few crafts!

Christmas Festival

Plymouth Congregational Church's Advent Celebration for All
Sunday, December 2, 2018

11:00 a.m.–1:30 p.m.

At the Christmas Festival, the joy of the Advent season infuses our building from the head of the Sanctuary to the toes of Lenmark. Listen to music, sing carols, delight in sumptuous foods, create ornaments and gifts and enjoy your Plymouth family.

Worship at 9 and 11 a.m.

Church School and Sundays @ 10, from 10 to 11

Crafts (all 15) in Jackman from 11:00 to 1:30

Beverages and cookies in Jones Commons from 10:00 to 1:30

Wreath Sales in Jones Commons from 10 to 1

Buffets (Guild Hall, Lenmark) from 11:45 to 1:30

Crafts (just three) in Guild Hall from noon to 1:30

Clean up (all are welcome to pitch in!) at 1:30